All methods by window length and position (five real datasets)

Mean over datasets and waves; relative MAE or WIS = value / lowest value of the methods on the same window (1 = best)

